Mr. McCALL presented a new bill.

8. B. No. 200.—To amend section 392 of the act to establish a code of civil procedure, passed March 11, 1853.

The Senate then resolved itself into commits.

The Whole, and considered

A compound remedy, designed to be the most effectual Alterative that can be made. It is a concentrated extract of Para Sarsaparilla, so combined with other substances of still greater alterative power as to afford an effectual and considered. greater alterative power as to afford an effec-tive antidote for the diseases Sarsaparilla is reputed to cure. It is believed that such a remedy is wanted by those who suffer from Strumous complaints, and that one which will accomplish their cure must prove of immense service to this large class of our afflicted fellow-citizens. How completely this compound will do it has been proven by experiment on many of the worst cases to be found of the following complaints : -SCHOPULA AND SCHOPULOUS COMPLAINTS. ERUPTIONS AND ERUPTIVE DISEASES, ULCERS, PIMPLES, BLOTCHES, TUMORS, SALT RHEUM, SCALD HEAD, SYPHILIS AND SYPHILITIC AP-PECTIONS, MERCURIAL DISEASE, DROPSY, NEU-RALDIA OR TIC DOULOUREUX, DEBILITY, DYS-PEPSIA AND INDICESTION, ERYSIPELAS, ROSE OR St. ANTHONY'S FIRE, and indeed the whole class of complaints arising from IMPURITY OF

THE BLOOD. This compound will be found a great pro-motor of health, when taken in the spring, to expel the foul humors which fester in the blood at that season of the year. By the time-ly expulsion of them many rankling disordors are nipped in the bud. Multitudes can, by the aid of this remedy, spare themselves from the endurance of foul eruptions and ulcerous sores, through which the system will strive to rid itself of corruptions, if not assisted to do this through the natural channels of the body by an alterative medicine. Cleanse out the vitiated blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in pimples, eruptions, or sores; cleanse it when you find it is ob-structed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it whenever it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Even where no particular disorder is felt, people enjoy better health, and live longer, for cleansing the blood. Keep the blood healthy, and all is well; but with this pabulum of life disordered, there can be no lasting health. Sooner or later something must go wrong, and the great machinery of life is disordered or overthrown. Sarsaparilla has, and deserves much, the reputation of accomplishing these ends. But the world has been egregiously deceived by preparations of it, partly because the drug alone has not all the virtue that is claimed for it, but more because many preparations, pretending to be concentrated extracts of it, contain but little of the virtue of Sarsaparilla or any thing else.

During late years the public have been misled by large bottles, pretending to give a quart of Extract of Sarsaparilla for one dollar. Most of these have been frauds upon the sick, for they not only contain little, if any, Sarsaparilla, but often no curative properties whatev-er. Hence, bitter and painful disappointment has followed the use of the various extracts of Sarsaparilla which flood the market, until the name itself is justly despised, and has become synonymous with imposition and cheat. Still we call this compound Sarsaparilla, and intend to supply such a remedy as shall rescue the name from the load of obloquy which rests upon it. And we think we have ground for believing it has virtues which are irresistible by the ordinary run of the diseases it is intended to cure. In order to secure their complete eradication from the system, the remedy should with a well settled conviction that it is the most practical amendment that the public will be likely to approve, to remedy, to some extent at least, the defects so generally complained of in our present system.

The districts courts as now organised, are, I believe, everywhere considered unsatisfactory. To complete the system proposed by this amendment, it will be necessary for the legislature, after its adoption, to increase the number of the judges of the Supreme Court to seven. With this increase, I am assured by some of the members of the ocurt and other gentlemen who have been judges of the court, under the present constitution, all the business of the Station of Dustrict courts can be disposed of without difficulty.

The advantages expected to be derived from the proposed amendment, Afr. Jones claimed to be 1st. To diminish the number of cases in the Station of business in the District Courts than could be reasonably expected in tribunals constituted as our district courts now are; al.

A much more satisfactory and expeditions disposition of business in the District Courts than could be reasonably expected in tribunals constituted as our district courts now are; al.

A fle contended that the change proposed, while it would in all respects greatly improve our judicial system, the improvement would be secured, not only without additional expense to the State, but would, as he believed, result in a large curialiment of the present expenditure. When the system established by the present constitution went into operation, but wenty, seven judges of the Court of Common Pleas were provided for. This number has been in the German language, and recommending that $2,500 instead of $5,000 (the amount in the bull as it passed the Sanate, be recased to forty. If the proposed change be adopted one-fourth of these can be disposated for the substitution bull to the present expenditure.
